Private Law 89-162

AN ACT

For the relief of First Lieutenant Robert B. Gann, and others.

October 29, 1965
[H. R. 1644]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That each of the individuals named in this Act is relieved of all liability to the United States in the amount shown opposite his name representing overpayments of compensation made to him as a Marine Corps officer as the result of administrative error in the establishment of his pay entry base date due to the fact that each of them held enlisted status concurrent with status as a midshipman and was given credit for such enlisted service in the establishment of his pay entry base date. The overpayments in each instance relieved by this Act are as follows:

Lt. Robert B.
Gann, and others.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to each individual named in section 1 of this Act, the sum certified to him by the Secretary of the Navy as the aggregate of amounts paid by such individual to the United States, or withheld from amounts due him from the United States, on account of the liability referred to in the first section of this Act.

SEC. 3. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act for the payment of any claim shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with such claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
